August

August is the best month of the year we reflect on what's happened since we last stood here salt in our hair and our feet in the sand I wouldn't expect anyone else to understand

August is the worst month of the year with autumn ahead, I feel so much fear nothing that summertime offers can last when September arrives, you'll be a piece of my past moving on I can't read your reaction when I set aside the initial attraction we have nothing, nothing, keeping us together

so much for forever...
